

1. you need to install live server in vscode

2. Just create html file (You need to create or open from live server)

3. click go live then your website will be opened in safari